

The Jay P. Weimar '79 Memorial Endowed Scholarship

Scholarship Fund Jumpstart

Raffle tickets will be sold for a 50/50 drawing. You can purchase 1 ticket for $5 or 3 tickets for $10. The winner's name will be drawn on Friday night. A silent auction will be held throughout the conference, with the final cut-off Friday at 8 p.m.

Florida Newspaper and Marketing Executives established a scholarship fund to honor Jay Weimar and his outstanding contributions to this association while holding the position of Display Advertising Director at The Florida Times-Union. Jay, a 1979 graduate of Flagler College, bravely fought a lengthy battle with cancer before passing away in December 2005.

FNAME will contribute $2,000 annually to this scholarship fund. You can make a personal contribution by going to the Web site www.flagler.edu/support. Please designate your tax-deductible gift to Jay P. Weimar Memorial. The scholarship will be awarded annually to a Flagler College journalism student based on financial need.

2009 Jay Weimar Scholarship recipient, Kristina Haumschild (right) pictured with Jay's wife, Karen Weimar.

About Flagler College

Flagler College is a residential college serving approximately 2,700 students, including 2,200 traditional, college-aged students on its main campus in St. Augustine. There are 400 students on its extended campus in Tallahassee, and 100 non-traditional students in its public administration program in St. Augustine.

Flagler College offers 20 majors, 26 minors, and two pre-professional programs leading to the bachelor's degree.

The heart of the campus is the former Hotel Ponce de Leon, one of the most historically significant buildings in the United States and a National Historic Landmark.